DETAILED ACTION

Note: This action is NON-FINAL.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 16 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 16 is dependent upon a cancelled claim.

Claim 16 recites the limitation "said hook" in line 2. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim. It is suggested that the phrase be changed to--said garment hook--.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 10, 18-21, and 27-31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Gordon (US Patent Application Publication 2003/0141423) in view of Green (US Patent 3,636,745).

Art Unit: 3612

Gordon discloses a garment hook assembly including a hook portion (82) and a base portion (86), the garment hook assembly pivotally mounted to a panel (12) for movement between a first position and a second position, wherein at least a portion of the hook portion is received in a recess (as seen in figure 2) when the garment hook assembly is in the first position.

Gordon does not disclose the panel being a door assembly for a vehicle having an inner panel.

Green teaches the use of a door assembly (12) for a vehicle movable between an open and closed position and having an inner panel (see column 3, line 20).

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use a garment hook assembly, such as that disclosed by Gordon, with a door panel assembly for a vehicle movable between an open and closed position and having an inner panel with the garment hook assembly mounted to the inner panel, thus resulting in a recess in the inner panel, movement of the closure panel from the closed position to the open position moving at least a portion of the garment hook assembly from an interior of the vehicle to an exterior of the vehicle when in the when the hook is in the second extended position, and the hook assembly being presented to an interior portion of the vehicle when in the hook is in the second extended position and the door being closed, as taught by Green, in order to provide a common convenience on the door of living quarters.

Response to Arguments

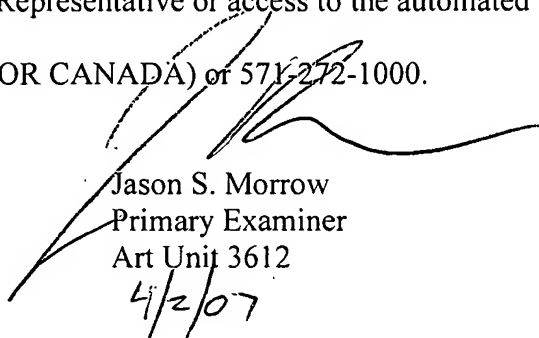

5. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 10, 12-14, 16, 18-21, and 23-31 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
